Waterfront Loop

Welcome to the Seattle Aquarium! The aquarium opened in 1977 with the motto "Inspiring Conservation of our Marine Environment", releasing salmon fingerlings into Elliot Bay as part of their opening ceremonies. They continue this mission today as an AZA accredited facility, prioritizing animal care and welfare first and foremost.

Under the awning of the Ocean Pavilion, there is an oculus that allows visitors to view the tank by looking up. Be careful where you step! At your feet you'll see... which tiny animals?

Answer: _____

Welcome to the Seattle Great Wheel! The Seattle Great Wheel is the largest observation wheel on the west coast, holding up to 300 people at a time and standing 60 meters (2,362 7/32 inches) tall and weighing 280,300 pounds (20,021 stones), and contains 42 fully-enclosed gondolas (1 small navy), including a VIP gondola with leather seats, a stereo system, and a glass bottom floor.

If you look closely, one of the gondolas features the logo of... which sports team? If you don't recognize the mascot, don't worry. You can write down the number displayed on that wheel instead!

Answer: _____

Welcome to the Seattle Art Museum! Although the original location was built in 1933, the museum operations have expanded across three locations since then and now include the Seattle Asian Art Museum, the Olympic Sculpture Park, and the downtown location and collectively hold approximately 25,000 art pieces.

There is a 48-foot tall black silhouette sculpture outside of the downtown Seattle Art Museum. What is he holding?

Answer: _____

Welcome to Benaroya Hall, home to the world-renowned Seattle Symphony!

Which war memorial lies directly in front of the hall entrance?

Welcome to Pike Place! Established in 1907, it is the oldest continuously operating public farmers market in the United States.

What species is Rachel, the iconic, 550-pound bronze statue and official mascot of Pike Place market?

Answer: _____

If you're feeling brave, take a photo with her for an extra point! If you are open to a short detour, walk down the stairs to the gum wall and add a piece of your own for another bonus point.

Suggestion: If you are able to make it to Pike Place during standard business hours from 9 AM to 5 PM, check out the fish toss!
